Odense Summer Retreat WEEKEND

Inner Choice...the Power of Now!

Non-judgment... is it possible?

Knowing one self better and daring to Be Self...?

Connecting with Spirit and enjoying Community...!

With the desire to come together in the spirit of exploration and willingness to try new approaches to letting go of the resistance of our "old stubborn self doubts", there is a completely new Self being born in the sharing of energies together in a retreat environment.

Giving ourselves time for a Joyful awakening to new points of reference, to new experiences of how we think and feel, is a kind of "birthing process". Safely open new doors of Perception and new feelings of Divine Potential flowing through us. It is with this goal in mind that we bring this short retreat with 4 talented teachers and the collective energies of everyone present, into focus again in 2011.
